EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

CRIPPLED CHILDREN'S SOCIETY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA (CCS)

SEARCHING for PRESIDENT

CCA is a private, non-profit organization whose mission is "to identify and reach out to persons with disabilities, assess the need for programs, seek solutions to problems affecting persons with disabilities, and foster cooperation between local, state, and national agencies" with an objective of providing services to improve the quality of life for persons with disabilities in southern California. There are 196 permanent and 94 seasonal staff, and 750 volunteers providing a variety of services to more than 6,000 consumers at 19 different sites throughout southern California. The President reports to a 36 member Board of Directors through the Board Chair and oversees an annual operating budget of $6.97 million. Combined Board reserves and endowment exceed $25 million.

A minimum of ten years senior management experience, preferably in a human and social service agency is required; experience with persons with disabilities strongly preferred. Demonstrated success in fund development is essential. A graduate degree or equivalent experience is required. Send resume and cover letter to:

Morris & Berger,
201 South Lake Avenue, Suite 700, Pasadena, CA 91101
Fax: (626) 795-6330.
